

Amanda CHEN

Partner

T +65 6381 6781

E amanda.chen@rhtlawasia.com

PRACTICE AREAS

- Corporate & Capital Markets
- Cross Border M&A
- Fintech & Financial Services
- International China Practice

INDUSTRY GROUPS

- Private Wealth
- Technology, Media & Communications

QUALIFICATIONS

- MCL (Master of Commercial Law, Australia)
- LL.B (China)

Amanda is a Partner with RHTLaw Asia's Corporate & Capital Markets Practice and heads the International China Practice. Prior to 2017, she was also an appointed Registered Professional with RHT Capital Pte. Ltd., an approved continuing sponsor on Catalyst, the sponsor-supervised board of the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited.

With over 20 years working experience in both the People's Republic of China (PRC) and Singapore, Amanda has gained extensive industry knowledge and experience across many different industries such as energy and environment, healthcare, education, and precision engineering etc. As a dual qualified lawyer in the PRC and Singapore (permitted areas), her main areas of expertise are corporate and capital markets, cross border mergers and acquisitions (M&As), FinTech and financial services and private wealth.

Her recent notable transactions include acted for Duisburger Hafen AG on its joint venture with PSA Northeast Supply Chain Pte Ltd, acted for Dyna-Mac Offshore Engineering (Shanghai) Co., Ltd on its joint venture with China Merchants Heavy Industry Holdings Limited, acted for Yihua Lifestyle Technology Co., Ltd. on its privatisation and delisting of HTL International Holdings Limited, and acted for Milkyway International Chemical Supply Chain Pte. Ltd. (a PRC mainboard listed company) on the voluntary conditional general offer to privatise LHN Logistics Limited (a Catalyst company) as well as its other private acquisition. Amanda also assists her PRC clients with various financial licenses application including CMS, MPI, sandbox etc.

Amanda speaks at various seminars and conferences on topics relating to the PRC regulatory updates, cross border transactions, internal controls and risk management among others. In FinTech area, Amanda was invited to speak at various seminars on blockchain and digital assets in the PRC. In November 2023, she was invited to speak at the Asia-Pacific RWA Tokenization Platform Summit "TradeFi and DeFi Unite: From Asia Pacific to the World", co-hosted by ChainUp, SGTOX and Alibaba Cloud during Singapore FinTech Festival.